

LLI Hootenanny

What is a Hootenanny? It's a folksong sing-along with musicians leading the singing!

Sunday, October 21, 2018

2:00-4:00 p.m.

Where: The Ethical Society

9001 Clayton Road, 63117

(north side of street, just west of Brentwood)

All proceeds will go the LLI Scholarship Fund. Suggested ticket price is a $20.00 donation.

What to do: buy a single ticket ($20.00) or a table of six ($120.00).

Fill out the form below and submit in an envelope to the Hootenanny Box in the office at LLI. On the day of the Hootenanny, please arrive ten minutes early. Don't forget to bring your own snacks and beverages as well as whatever cups, plates or napkins you may need. Park in the back of the Ethical Society and enter the double doors to the west. People who purchase tables will have reserved tables; the rest will be open seating at the unreserved tables.

Ticket purchase form: Fill out, tear off and put in the Hootenanny Box in the LLI office or mail to the LLI office at 7425 Forsyth, Campus Box 1154, St. Louis, MO 63105. No reservations will be accepted without donation. Tables must be complete before purchasing.

Name _____ Amount $ _____

____ Single Reservation _____ I am reserving a table (by October 10)

Please list names/amount of those donating below or use back of this paper.

CASH OR CHECK (make payable to Washington University—LLI with “scholarship fund” on memo line)